

Runaway

Samantha Fish

There goanna follow you through a dark alley
You creep and hide
You best be aware cause there find you in time
You canâ€™t go far
Without them catching up to you
Hereâ€™s something you tell yourself when you got nothing left to do

There goanna hunt you down
Find you in the night
There going to get you baby when you arenâ€™t out doing right
I can see it coming now
Is that far away train
Tie yourself to the tracks now whoâ€™s the one to blame

Runaway do that thing you do
Runaway weep and moan they get to you
You canâ€™t runaway no no no!
Runaway from the blues

Head for the horizon
High from the morning light
You were never the type to try and put up a fight
Just hold on in the night
While itâ€™s ripped down the seam
Just donâ€™t close your eyes because maybe they will find you in your dreams

Runaway do that thing you do
Runaway weep and moan they get to you
You canâ€™t runaway no no no!
runaway from the blues

Spoken (Iâ€™m telling you babe no!)
Guitar solo

Got a bounty on your head
Run but you canâ€™t hide
When it comes around lord itâ€™s not goanna be denied
When the walls come crashing down
Oh your goanna fall

I wonder if you be so strong when the blues come to call

Runaway do that thing you do
Runaway weep and moan they get to you
You canâ€™t runaway no no no!
Runaway from the blues

Runaway do that thing you do
Runaway weep and moan they get to you
You canâ€™t runaway no no no!
Runaway from the blues

I said you canâ€™t runaway no no no!
Runaway from the blues

Oh no canâ€™t runaway babe
Runaway
Oh no no baby you canâ€™t
You canâ€™t runaway

Oh no no Spoken (you canâ€™t runaway donâ€™t even try)
