

Possum Holler

Dolly Parton & Porter Wagoner

As time goes by the tales grow taller
About possum in Possum HollerAs a young man I'd go a courtin'
With my sweetheart so young and fair
Down the mountain to Possum Holler
That's where he'd always find me waitin' thereNow I tell my mama that I's goin' out walking
Neath the moonlight so bright and fair
And I'd tell daddy I was huntin' possum
And take off a grinnin' and a slickin' down my hair
As time goes by the tales grow taller
About possum in Possum HollerThen one evening in Possum Holler
My sweetheart's daddy stopped all our fun
Yeah we got married in Possum Holler
Just you and me my daddy and daddy's gunAs time goes by the tales grow taller
About possum in Possum Holler
Now when they see a possum hunter
Young and handsome and a smellin' fair
We just lean back and bust our laughin'
Cause we know there ain't no possum thereAs time goes by the tales grow taller
About possum in Possum Holler
About possum in Possum Holler
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>