

Shindo

Less Than Jake

Something's out there and it takes me away
From a world too small to stay
Somethins our there
Another day in this place so small
I'd rather be somebody else
Maybe if my mind wasn't so tall
I wouldn't be able to tell
And I've alked these streets
It seems like 10 million times
And I've seen things up and leave time after time
(And it's just another day) in this place so small
I'D RATHER BE SOMEBODY ELSE.
OLD HABITS DIE HARD.
