

Self-conscious

The-dream

You don't have to be self-conscious.I got you boo
I got you boo
I got you boo
I got you boo
I got you boo
I got you boo, boo, booI love your eyes in the morning
Even though you beggin' me not to look your way, yeah
I love your smile in the morning
Even without the gloss
You look fine to me, yeah
Forget about the world whenever I'm with you
So forget about the world whenever your with me
If there's something broke then I will fix it
Girl lay in my arms
You will never feel aloneYou don't have to be self-conscious
I love everything about you baby I promise
Don't be hard on yourself
Really there's nothin'
That can change the way I feel, I'm for real
If my love could kill
Love, love, love, love, loveI'm a love your body all night girl
Stop talkin' bout you gettin' thick
And make love to me
I'm a kiss your face all night girl
Goin' straight for the dimples in your cheeks
Even though you hate it
Girl forget about the world whenever you with me
If you swear to never front
I swear I'll never leave
And I will keep the secrets, buried deep in me
You will never be aloneYou don't have to be self-conscious
I love everything about you, baby I promise
Don't be hard on yourself
Really there's nothin'
That can change the way I feel, I'm for real
If my love could kill
Love, love, love, love, love
