Self-conscious

The-dream

You don't have to be self-conscious. I got you boo

I got you boo, boo, bool love your eyes in the morning Even though you beggin' me not to look your way, yeah

I love your smile in the morning

Even without the gloss

You look fine to me, yeah

Forget about the world whenever I'm with you

So forget about the world whenever your with me

If there's something broke then I will fix it

Girl lay in my arms

You will never feel alone You don't have to be self-conscious

I love everything about you baby I promise

Don't be hard on yourself

Really there's nothin'

That can change the way I feel, I'm for real

If my love could kill

Love, love, love, love l'm a love your body all night girl

Stop talkin' bout you gettin' thick

And make love to me

I'm a kiss your face all night girl

Goin' straight for the dimples in your cheeks

Even though you hate it

Girl forget about the world whenever you with me

If you swear to never front

I swear I'll never leave

And I will keep the secrets, buried deep in me

You will never be alone You don't have to be self-conscious

I love everything about you, baby I promise

Don't be hard on yourself

Really there's nothin'

That can change the way I feel, I'm for real

If my love could kill

Love, love, love, love
