

Judgement City

Verge of Umbra

Verse 1

I just arrived when the sun come down to perform at a function in judgment town
Picked up in a ride weh mi comfort down, taken to the north side concert grounds
Push out a vibes weh di people mi love, peace and love, being as one
Completely emerged in the beat and the sound, rock through the night till we bring in the sun
When the sun came a change had occurred, a revelation with the day had emerged
A realization they had to return to a lower vibration of pain and hurt
Rich in appearance but poor inside, they keep the façade up for touristâ€™s eyes
Judgment city, I adore the design but the architecture at the core is a lie

Chorus

Judgment City is almost painted, newly constructed to be destructive
The frills and the frauds are all in place, the only thing left fi we go do dah get up and face it

They spend their lives, maintaining this paradigm

Verse 2

All I can say when we left that place, we gave them a taste of a freedom
No matter how deep in material realm, we are never too far to achieve it
Close your eyes, deep, slow, start with your breathing
Pessimistic views that weâ€™ve been keeping that leech us, we can delete them
See things as they are, not how weâ€™ve been taught to perceive them
The ego falls with this treatment, the heart takes the lead
And a peace is received we cannot achieve through material beliefs
Gluttony, anger, envy and greed, itâ€™s a pity
Trailing the vain and the pretty
Anesthetizing the eyes of the many still hypnotized by the lights of the city

Chorus

Judgment City is almost painted, newly constructed to be destructive
The frills and the frauds are all in place, the only thing left fi we go do dah get up and face it
