

Crashed

Pain

Time is running out, can't you understand?
The end is coming near, we gotta wake up fast
I don't wanna fall, all because of someone else
Decided your fate, they'll fuck you in
Burn above the line
Destroy your suffering life, we cannot hide
Well, I guess that the walls are closing in
You cannot breathe, there we can't [Incomprehensible]
No cure when you bleed, no cure when you breathe
Go I've been to hell and back again, confronted Lucifer's heir
I threw him aside, I chose the side
The end of Jesus Christ, how pathetic and out framed [Incomprehensible] revenge of the devil I've seen the angels falling
I feel the pain is coming closing in
I hear the dead are crying
I see the devil, he's smiling
Of all the power of the mighty flames
I am the only one that rules now
He's got your soul, you'll lose your mind
It's outta control, you're gonna die
I've seen the angels falling
I feel the pain is coming closing in
I hear the dead are crying
I see the devil, he's smiling
Go The devil's got your soul
I've seen the angels falling
I feel the pain is coming closing in
I hear the dead are crying
I see the devil, he's smiling
The devil is pissed
