

Soulglow (feat. Damon Trueitt)

Mogul

You are my brighter side I know
Shining hard to be
You are now go not to go
Straight into electricity

When you smile, baby
Heavens, I hold
Give me resign
My heart to grow

They are soulglow
There are lies
They are soulglow
There are lies
They are soulglow
There are lies
They are soulglow
There are lies

Here we how again my life
If you took me control me (some shine)
You are illuminate my soul
Help me to be free

When you touch me
Light in your rise
Unlike the sun babes
Make me to feel pride

And can't stop loving you
And you lot just not true (party is just so true)
And can't stop being you
And no matter what to do (feel feel you)
And can't stop loving you
And you lot just not true
And don't stop being you
And no matter what to do (spread your life)
And can't stop loving you
And you lot just not true (spread your life)
And can't stop being you

And no matter what to do (spread your life)
And can't stop loving you
And no matter just so true
And can't stop being you
And no matter what to do

Way that soulglow
Soulglow, baby
Spread you life
Oooohhh (sunshine)
Let it shine
Ohhhh (sunshine)
Ohhh (so bright), baby
Oh let it
Ohhhh, baby

Soulglow
They are lies
They are soulglow
They are lies

They are soulglow
They are lies
They are soulglow
They are lies
