

Climb (feat. Vinja Mojica)

Mos Def

People climbed into the night like space suits
People stepped into the night like moon boots
Marching like moon troops
In their zoot colored zoot suits People climbed into the night like cool wells
Shiny bottles in their hands
Drinking their new selves
They say it's their true selves People climbed up in the night like green trees
They were hanging from the night like green leaves
Buzzing like queen bees People climbed into the night like space suits
People stomped inside the night
Stomping and stomping and stomping and stomping and stomping Where are they going?
What's the rush?
Everybody's embraced but so out of touch
Hey Night-time is when the things get heavy
You feel alone and you want somebody
Loneliness whispers desperate measures
And you're frantic all by yourself Night-time is when the things get heavy
You feel alone and you want somebody
Loneliness whispers desperate measures
Baby don't make no fast moves
Baby don't make no fast moves, Tonight People stomped inside the night
Let me climb into the night
Let me climb
