

To the Abyss Unfathomable

Even Song

What luminous galaxies have been thy prey
O, all-consuming, unrestrained Space?
What gyres of planets sunk in thy voidness absolute O, indivisible infinity? O, unrevealed Abyss, whose deep sustains flaming, triumphant suns, what further, distant worlds doth thee hide in thy universe-ulterior vast? O, direful chasm, elder gods' necropolis,
what star-possessed realms rest within thy depths?
