Dream

Michelle Tumes

There's a dream in your heart and His heart is your prayerI believe there is divine imagination
Give it wings for it created aviation
Every little hope you're holding inside
Every little gleam you keep in your eyes
A dream, hey, a dreamBefore a seed became a flower there was a vision
The dream is planted deep, He'll shower it with wisdom
Flowing with the love that's making you smile
You've waited and you've prayed, you've dreamed your whole life
Your soul begin to flyThere's a dream in your heart and His heart is your prayer
You can move mountains with your life in His hands
He'll tear down the walls and He'll walk where you can't
Have faith in the power to believe
He's given you the dreamI pray your dream will leap beyond you expectations
You'll see miracles He has no limitations
Listen to His voice a spark will ignite
Let Him be the strength to carry your life
He'll raise your spirit highThere's a dream in your heart and His heart is your prayer
You can move mountains with your life in His hands
He'll tear down the walls and He'll walk where you can't
Have faith in the power to believe
He's given you a dreamYou will find the bloom beneath the sunshine
Reach inside and sail to His horizon
Every little hope you're holding inside
Every little gleam you keep in your eyes
You've waited and you've prayed, you've dreamed your whole life
Your soul begin to flyThere's a dream in your heart and His heart is your prayer
You can move mountains with your life in His hands
He'll tear down the walls and He'll walk where you can't
Have faith in the power to believe
He's given you a dreamThere's a dream in your heart and His heart is your prayer
You can move mountains with your life in His hands
He'll tear down the walls and He'll walk where you can't
Have faith in the power to believe
He's given you a dreamFaith in the power to believe
He's given you a dream
Faith in the power to believe
God I have faith in the power to believe
He's given you a dream
Faith in the powerFaith in the power to believe

He's given you a dream
Faith in the power to believe
God I have faith in the power to believe
He's given you a dream
Faith in the power
