

King Of Sabotage

Ferras

Congratulations
You've done it again
You're unbelievable
Undefeatable
The number 1, she's a champion
You're genius
A superstar
When those castle walls begin to fall
Your premises, king of sabotage
I want to love you
But I can't 'cause I don't know if I can forgive you
For all those stupid things you said
And all your empty promises
Hey, we laugh as beautiful
Hey, baby you need to show it up
You think that I exaggerate
Whenever that is perfect
The original king of sabotage
Coming out, going animal
Hey, when you should be wonderful
You better be worthy
When they couldn't curse it
A round of applause
For the king of sabotage (DL)Apologies
On the tip of your tongue
There's no strategy
No remedy
Can't you see the damage that you've done
I want to love you
But I can't 'cause I don't know if I can forgive you
For all those stupid things you said
And all your empty promises
Hey, we laugh as beautiful
Hey, baby you need to show it all
You think that I exaggerate
Whenever that is perfect
The original king of sabotage
Coming out, going animal
Hey, when you should be wonderful

You better be worthy
When they couldn't curse it
A round of applause
For the king of sabotage You build yourself too strong
You fucked it up
I tried to love you
But I can't cause I don't know if I can forgive you Hey, we laugh as beautiful
Hey, baby you need to show it all
You think that I exaggerate
Whenever that is perfect
The original king of sabotage
Coming out, going animal
Hey, when you should be wonderful
You better be worthy
When they couldn't curse it
A round of applause
For the king of sabotage For the king
