Forever Alone

Dark Soul Project

No one can say I didn't try
Tried everything to make you feel what I feel
Well I guess I pushed to hard
And now you're slippin' away

Feels like my love, for you
Is stopping you from being you
You shine best without me
Like all the ones I had before
I am forever alone

Home alone eatin' sushi for two
Home alone, and I'm waiting for someone
Who never shows up, oooo ooooo
And I'm lonely, I'm angry, I'm tired

You only given me cricks of your love
Appointments you been breaking 'em all
It's like a never ending story
I give, and you take, and I give

Feels like my love, for you
Is stopping you from being you
You shine best without me
Like all the ones I had before
I am forever alone

When I had your hand you were sincere
But did you ever think about me when I wasn't near you
Why would you ever put me first
You are second to none

I wanted to leave. I tried to find someone new,
But I always end up still wanting you
Why do I do this to myself?

Feels like my love, for you
Is stopping you from being you
You shine best without me
Like all the ones I had before

I am forever alone
