My Turn To Cry

EXO-M

Well I was pretty young
She was young and pretty
I was so naive
It was such a pity
I said now baby dont you waste your time
Just cryin for me
I gotta go away for a while
And you can be freeAnd baby, baby, its my turn to cry
Baby, baby, its my turn to cryI found a job
And you found a lover
Hed been married before
But you needed the shelter
When I told you to have a good time
I think you took me all wrong
Next thing I know youre engaged
And a kid is coming alongAnd baby, baby, its my turn to cry
Baby, baby, its my turn to cry(Im sittin at home, watchin the walls
My mouth is parched, my stomachs tight
You said goodbye, you turned you back
I guess you know whats right . . .
Im sittin at home, watchin the walls
Birdcage mouth, I lost the fight
You said goodbye, you turned you back
I guess you know whats right . . .)I found a job
And you found a lover
Hed been married before
But you needed the shelterAnd baby, baby, its my turn to cry
Baby, baby, its my turn to cryI said baby..I said baby..I said baby.. its my turn to cry
