

Make Up Your Mind and Do What You Want to Do

Agent Orange

You know you don't have time to sit around
Waiting for the perfect chance to come your way
And you'll never find the answers to the questions you ask
By listening to what other people say You've got to let originality be your inspiration
You know plagiarism is a crime
(Dexter!)
Even if it turns out to be a miserable disaster
You will live to try another time that's why I say Make up your mind and do what you want to do Well you've got to be joking, if you say your thoughts
Have fallen into someone else's hands
And you've got to be crazy, if you think your life
Is just a mess of threats and tough demands Well you just can't be that far away from what you want
To think that nothing's gonna get you there
'Cuz the truth is you were born with everything you need
No, you don't have to be a billionaire all you have to do is Make up your mind and do what you want to do If you're gonna do it, do it right!
In the end you're gonna see that it was worth your time
The results are gonna make you smile
There's really nothing to it, if you use your head
And concentrate for just a little while All it takes is just a twist of your wild imagination
New ideas will come tumbling out
Can you feel the time slipping?
Don't keep the world waiting
Listen up, if you can hear me shout Make up your mind and do what you want to do
