

Door to Door

The Cars

All us angels wearing studs
Yeah, plastic mouth melts in the sun
Oh, running colors everyone
'Cause we're all in prison having fun Oh, perfect pictures hang around
Well, delusions swing you up and down
Well, fall out windows climb up trees
I'm lookin' for tranquility Hmm, got your, oh, locks and chains
Well, still gonna blow your brains out
Those locks and chains No, nah, never felt like a dream like you before
Even knocking door to door
Oh yeah, I never felt like a dream like you before
Even knocking door to door Oh yeah, you got your herds of people choosing arms
Gonna keep us all in mass alarm
Oh, murder movies make your day
Ah ah, living in the USA Cracked up people on the edge
They got no heroes, got no bread
Oh, get the jitters, get the shakes
Lookin' like the final take Oh, well locks and chains
Gonna protect you
Well, locks and chains
Don't feel no more Never felt a dream like you before
Even knocking door to door
Oh, never felt a dream like you before
Even knocking door to door Yeah, locks and chains
Well, gonna blow your brains out?
Yeah, locks and chains
Can't feel no more Never felt a dream like you before
Even knocking door to door
Uh well, I never felt a dream like you before
Oh, even knocking door to door Oh, livin' in a dream is all the same
Ah, yeah, livin' in a dream is a-all the same
Oh, never felt a dream like you before
Even knocking door to door, door to door
