End of Tether

The Sheila Divine

Set it all aside
tell me what you're really looking for.
Beginnings a big lie
the endings just a fade to nothingness.

Each time I fail
it kills me that's all I'm not there for you.
it kills me it's all I'm not there for you
each time I fail.

A pious advice
disguising my own failures and lost dreams.
Learn to be your own man,
don't be fooled by the siren's schemes.

Each time I fail
it kills me that's all I'm not there for you.
it kills me it's all I'm not there for you
each time I fail.

But I'm not ashamed
it kills me that's all I'm this pain for you
it kills me it's all I'm not there for you
each time I fail.

End of tether
faking all seems so unhappy and so alone
Maybe it's the weather
Maybe it's more each day seems worst than the one before.

End of tether
faking all seems so unhappy and so alone
Maybe it's the weather
Maybe it's more each day feels worst than the one before.

it kills me that's all I'm not there for you.
it kills me it's all I'm not there for you
each time I fail.
