

Giving It Back

Matthew Sweet

Your depth of sadness was a gift
And for a while I cherished it
I'm tired of wastin' my time away
So I'm giving it back to you
Giving it back to you It takes a lot to keep you going
Wearing me down without you knowing
My will to fight has gone away
So I'm giving it back to you
Giving it back to you I'm tired of waste my time away
So I'm giving it back to you
Giving it back to you I'm tired of wastin' my time away
So I'm giving it back to you
Giving it back to you
