They cry for you, get you flowers Talk good about you

Niggas hate you when you living, Niggas cry when you die Niggas laughing, Niggas hugging, but they hate you inside Niggas showing fate, love, Niggas shooting you lies The world wanna see you go, they don't want you to shine Never sleep on a Nigga, so I don't close my eyes See the slime getting slimed, I ain't never surprised when you die that's when they come with all they gifts and shit all the calls all the crying all emotional and shit Niggas always told me it was a cold cold world 99.9 percent of this world ain't thorough before they help your ass swim they'll drown you fool before a Nigga show you love he'll lie on you fool don't wait to throw a block party when they put me in the ground, wanna throw a block party Nigga throw it for me now don't wait for me to die just to put me on a T show me that same loyalty now if you really for me they wasn't even trying to go by that way now all of a sudden nobody got nothing bad to say let them tell it when you was living you and them was straight but Niggas come with all the loyalty when they put you away when they drop you in that hole Niggas scared to hate but when you was living ain't nobody wanna tell you to
