Take You Home

The Pierces

Hey, are you beautiful?
And were you sent here
To love me?
Hey, are you warm inside?
Cause my nights are cold
Cause my days are alone
Can't believe my eyes
This metamorphosis
Right before my eyes
A change took place
And I'd like to take you home
Cause I've been so alone
Would you fill this empty space
With your lovely face?
Hey, will you hold me 'till
All this empty surrenders
Cause I, cannot find the light
In these old and darkened nights
But I'm as full as a song
With no one there to sing
And I am fighting with my heart
And this voice that you bring..

Cause I'd like to take you home
Cause I've been so alone
Would you fill this empty space
With your lovely face?
Ohh, you make me beautiful
Will you stay here?
And love me?
For I have never known
Nights so warm
Or days so bright
Look into my eyes
This metamorphosis
Right before you eyes
A change takes place,.
And I'd like to take you home
Cause I've been so alone

Would you fill this empty space
With your lovely face?
And I'd like to take you home
Cause I've been so alone
Would you fill this empty space
With your lovely face?
