

I'm Tired of Truckin' My Blues Away

Sonny Boy Williamson

Oh, I'm gettin', yes I'm gettin' tired
A you trucking my blues away
I'm gettin' so tired
A tellin' ya about the same thing everyday Now, here I sit here on the fence
Now, you don't come and get me, ya ain't got no sense
And I'm gettin', yes I'm gettin' so tired
A you trucking my blues away Yes, I'm gettin', I'm gettin' really tired
A you trucking my blues away
I'm gettin', oh baby, so tired
Tell ya about the same thing everyday Once there was two old maids layin' in the bed
One turned over and the other one said
"And I'm gettin', yes I'm gettin', tired
Of you trucking my blues away" Yes, and I'm gettin' baby, so tired
A you trucking my blues away
Yes, I'm gettin' so tired, darlin'
Just the same thing everyday Now me and my baby, cimbin' up the hill
You know we playin' like Jack an Jill
Now I'm gettin', yes, I'm gettin' tired
A you trucking my blues away Yes, and I've been gettin' more tired
Darlin' of you trucking my blues away, yeah man
Yes, I'm gettin' so tired
Tell ya about the same thing everyday, yeah man Oh yeah, I sit here on the fence
Now, ya don't come get me, ain't got no sense
Yes, and I'm gettin', I'm gettin' really tired
A you trucking my blues away Yes, and I'm gettin', yes, and I'm gettin' tired
Of you trucking my blues away, yeah, baby
I'm gettin' so tired, darlin'
Tellin' ya about the same thing everyday Tie your mouth Well, there two old maids, layin' in the bed
One turned over and the other one said
"I'm a gettin', yes, I'm gettin' tired
Of you trucking my blues a
