Friends

Mike Francis

Come on my friend
and leave your caution to the wind
I know we use to keep that feeling out of sight
It's getting stronger
I feel it burning in my mind slowly teasing me it's growing deep insideCome on and lay your tender lips down on my skin show me how sweet and easy it can be...
Let us stick together and make it happen...I won't think it over again I'll take you to the top tell me of your hidden thoughts come on let me love you again I'll do the best I can make me tremble with your breath
Come on my friend
and leave your caution way behind I wanna love your body till the morning light watch me my friend I feel you reachin' in my mind though I know we'll be in love just for one night I keep on trying to change my point of view again but everything seems to be the same I want you where you are now
I don't wanna loose you
