No Change

Levellers

Can you hear the sound of the fiddle and the drum ?
passing them fade
of chanting in the streets ? screaming for better days.you've heard it all yes, we've all heard it all but tell me what has changed you've seen it all we've all seen it all so tell me what has changed.and the palace stays the same only the guards ever change so lay me downyou've heard the singer sing proud their songs telling us what is wrongyou've read the books that say where to look well, where's the answers goneyou've seen it all yes, we've all seen it all but tell me what has changedbut the palace stays the same
only the guards ever change
so lay me down
