

Promise the Moon

Dangerous Toys

I don't remember how it started, I don't know how it ends
World keeps turnin' makin' me dizzy, feels like I blew it againWhen I was young they told me this would be easy
When times got tough they were changin' their tune
They should of told me that they were teas'n
When they promised the moonI walked through all the doors, read all the signs
Felt I had nothin' to lose
Each of us you know we've got our own problems
We wear the same kind of shoesWhen we were young they told us this would be easy
When times got tough they were changin' their tune
They should of told us that they were teas'n
When they promised moon
Whey do they lie
Why do they promise you can touch the sky
Why do they lie
Why do they promise the moon
Why do they promise the moon
