Crystal Sounds

Thirteen Senses

A little wiser now
A dedication to life
I caught a fever tonight
I lost all sense of mindGather all the elements
They're falling in the rain
And you can hear the howling wind
Calling out your nameThe sound's as crystal as you want
The sound's as crystal as you needCaught in the storm in the dark of night
Keeps you listening
And the talk gets lost when you get found
Refusing to give inA little wiser now
A dedication to life
I caught a fever tonight
I lost all sense of mindThe sound's as crystal as you want
The sound's as crystal as you need
