

Don't Fade Away

Peter Frampton

Mine she's blind she's all I need to be at ease
Love light burnt so bright lady you're a fantasy
I play on her emotions there's no point I don't get no reaction
'Cause she'll leave as she came and I gave her my name
Serpentine sunshine with you, baby with you Floating mind you're a kind of candle shadow on the wall
Pisces child running wild weeping willow cries alone
I don't want to replace her, she don't look, she don't look when I face her
Though I treasure the thought which could never be bought
Side by side rowing with you, rowing with you I need your love more than I need you
So please, don't fade away, keep you in my view
I can't see, I can't be I don't want to replace her, she don't look, she don't look when I face her
Though I treasure the thought which could never be bought
Side by side rowing with you, rowing with you
