

True Hate

Heavens

We came down with a crushing might
I might be mistaken
We came down with a sickening flight
Forever forsaken We got all bent right out of shape
Hopelessly dreadful
Cut through miles of blood-red tape
Confessed a gaping mouthful Too much, too late [x3] We came down with a crushing might Something so rotten
We gave up fighting a good fight
Forever forgotten We got all bent right out of shape
Hopelessly dreadful
Cut through miles of blood-red tape
Confessed a gaping mouthful Too much, too late [x3]
No love, No hate
Too much, too late [x3]
No love, no hate We came down with a crushing might
I might be mistaken
We came down with a sickening flight
Forever forsaken We got all bent right out of shape
Hopelessly dreadful
Cut through miles of blood-red tape
Confessed a gaping mouthful Too much, too late [x3]
No love, No hate
Too much, too late [x3]
True love, True hate
