

Can You Hear Me

Young Love

Love can you hear me?
I'm calling to you Beyond the fields of Avalon
I found a new lover
It's her I lay my lips upon
When my emotions uncover Even when she's far away
Beyond my fences
I know that she will never stray
Beyond my senses Love can you hear me?
I'm calling to you When her kisses touch my soul
I feel embraced by the diva
And then my spirit unfolds
And shakes me like Shiva Beyond the gates of Babylon
I found a new lover
It's her I lay my lips upon
When my emotions uncover Love can you hear me?
I'm calling to you
My heart is on the line
