Moonchild

Rory Gallagher

You are a moonchild and, pretty soon child
I've got that feeling that
I'm gonna make you smile forever if I can
Just give me a sign and I'll show you my planYou are a blue child, forever true child
You know that I'll try to Paint the skies blue forever if I can
Just give me a sign and I'll show you my planTell me why you look so sad
Time slips by like grains of sand
Just put your future in my handsTell me, tell me why you look so sad
Time slips by like grains of sand
Just put your future in my handsYou are a moonchild and, pretty soon child
I've got that feeling that
I'm gonna make you smile forever if I can
Just give me a sign and I'll show you my planJust show me a smile and I'll show you my plan
Just give me a sign and I'll show you my plan
