Failure

Red Fang

Don't fail me, don't fail me now X2You take the lies I give to you
You take them all to make them true
Now the soil has turned face down
What is that sound? There ain't nothing aroundDon't fail me, don't fail me now X2Backing down in my darkest place
The chains on the ground are the lines in my face
Scratch on the wall is a ghost of you
You make them all and make them trueYou don't know me, but you willIt's something else I'm feeling
There's something wrong
It's something else that we found outYou don't know me, but you willA seething mass has gone to ground
To let it sleep I kill my town
Bar the door. Sink away
It's alive. It's too lateYou don't know me, but you will
