Happens All The Time

The Real Kids

No need to feel ashamed
There's nothing to be gained
When your dreams are in the past.
Like stars, we crush and burn
Only to return
Life goes by so fast.
So who is left to blame
Nothing's quite the same
We can't live in the past.
I'm burning as hot as the sun
And I've only just begun
Love, it fades so fast.
Sometimes I forget
All I will regret
When I leave this world behind

Sometimes I'm not sure
What I'm fighting for
It happens all the time.

I know I've had enough
Maybe far too much
It's easy to be blind

When it's just me and you
I know what I have to do
I can leave this world behind
No need to feel ashamed
When there's nothing to be gained
When your dreams are in the past.
Like stars we crush and burn
Only to return
Times they change so fast
Sometimes I forget
All I will regret
When I leave this world behind
Sometimes I'm not sure
What I'm fighting for
It happens all the time

It happens all the time
It happens all the time
