

Remain

Royal Tailor

I know you're feeling weighted down
It's all on your shoulders
I know the dreams in your head
Don't look any closer

But I'm gonna make you stronger
Hold on just a little bit longer
'Cause I'll be there
When you feel like you're going under
I'm gonna be there for you
yeah yeah

[Chorus:]
The sky could fall
The ground could shake
The stars burn out
And seasons change
The time will pass
And beauty fade
But all my love will remain
All my love will remain [x2]

When there's a secret to tell
It's locked and I'll keep it close
And when you're walking through fire
I'll take you to streets of gold

Yeah I'm gonna make you stronger
Hold on just a little bit longer
'Cause I'll be there
When you feel like you're going under
yeah yeah

[Chorus]

And when the world all around you feels out of place
You can't seem to find a familiar face
I'm here to remind you my love remains

And you know

[Chorus]
