All of Yours

Making April

My blood bleeds red
For all those thoughts you left unsaid
Well how could you let your guard down
And let me impose
Were dying the further this thing goesWell can we go back to where we were before
You dropped your heart on my floor
Cause it was easiest to hide it all away
And never say what we were thinking
No youd never catch me blinking that night
Cause I was all of yoursBut dont say we became too late
Well I just think youre humoring yourself
Let me say one more thing before you fly
And this charade is out of sight
Ive been wrong but now Im right
So let your precious sky come down on you tonightIm right outside
With every useless key Ive tried
Youre seamlessly wrapped in secrets
Unraveling now
But you dont know just why or howBridge
(left your heart at my door)
(blinking those nights)Well can we go back to where we were before
You dropped your heart on my floor
Cause it was easiest to hide it all away
And never say what we were thinking
No youd never catch me blinking that night
Cause I was all of yours(Let me say one more thing before these Beautiful mistakes weve made run dry
Well I thought this would all blow by
And everything would just turn out alrightAnd this would all be fine)
So say goodbye to days like these
Ill give it one more try and hope it all seems better in your eyes
Well maybe not this time
