

Colorado Sunrise

3OH!3

And if I had something to say to you I'd whisper it softly,

Kiss you on your rosy lips and never let you off me.

Shiver on your roof and see your face lit by starlight,

Hold you through the night and watch that Colorado sunrise.I've got five fingers on each hand for every mistake that I've made

Plus my tongue is tied to tonsils and I need to shit and shave

I'm a shade to pale for handsome and have habits I can't shake

And if you try to take that from me well I'll never be the sameTrain wreck that I am

And I am what I am what I am

A train wreck, that I am

And I am what I am what I am

A train wreckAnd as long as it's OK with you I think I'll stay right here.

I got no where to go cause where to go is up to you, dear.

Happy as a clam I see the glimmer in your eyes.

Hold you through the night and watch that Colorado sunrise.No car and never cared because I got no place to go.

But in a room, (a single wall?) I couldn't pay a plant to grow

You can try and make this pretty, pick up all my dirty clothes.

And if you never really get me then I guess you'll never know theTrain wreck that I am

And I am what I am what I am

A train wreck, that I am

And I am what I am what I am

A train wreckI've got five fingers on each hand for every mistake that I've made

Plus my tongue is tied to tonsils and I need to shit and shave

I'm a shade to pale for handsome and have habits I can't shake

And if you try to take that from me well I wouldn't be the sameTrain wreck that I am

And I am what I am what I am

(Colorado sunrise)

A train wreck

That I am

And I am what I am what I am

(Colorado sunrise)

Train wreck.

That I am

(If I had something to say to you I'd whisper it softly)

And I am what I am what I am

(Kiss you on your rosy lips and never let you off me)

A train wreck

That I am

(Shiver on your roof see your face lit by starlight)

And I am what I am what I am
(Hold you through the night and watch that Colorado sunrise)
A train wreck.
