Everytime

Coko

Didn't know this house could feel so empty
Didn't know the nights could be so long
I flash back to memories of how we made love
It feels like you are here with me but I'm all aloneEverytime we say goodbye
You take a piece of me with you
And everytime I close my eyes
I feel you coming back to me, to meI didn't have a chance to kiss and hold you
As long as I've really wanted to
But I can hear your sexy voice in my ear
Saying it won't be long until you're hereEverytime we say goodbye
You take a piece of me with you
And everytime I close my eyes
I feel you coming back to me, to meAs I lay me down, down to sleep
Thoughts of you come rushing to me, me
Now you're on the phone, talking sweet
Saying that you're saving all your love for me
Just for me, yeahEverytime we say goodbye
You take a piece of me with you
And everytime I close my eyes
I feel you coming back to me, to meEverytime, everytime, everytime
Everytime, everytime, everytime
Everytime, everytime, everytimeEverytime we say goodbye
You take a piece of me with you
And everytime I close my eyes
I feel you coming back to me, to meEverytime we say goodbye
You take a piece of me with you
And everytime I close my eyes
I feel you coming back to me, to me
