

Who Would've Thought

Rancid

Who would've thought that dreams come true
And who would've thought I'd end up with you
And who would've thought what they said was true
But it was and you are light and darkness coming through
Silhouetted palm trees backing up against the sky
Echo park sunset, an ambulance drives by
Well, someone went down and I wonder who Faces flash forth could it be anybody I knew
So I drank like a fish till I crawl like a rat
In the city of shit, I ended up on my back
But I can't believe you're with me after dark
So let it come together in echo park
And I said, who would've thought that dreams come true
And who would've thought I'd end up with you
And who would've thought what they said was true
But it was and you are light and darkness coming through
A red flag and your body wins
Or a snake bite, gotta start again
So I'm fucked up, I'm watching TV all day
I don't wanna see what Ricky Lake's gotta say
And it hits me when I'm alone, I'm an angry man
I start singing to myself, I got dealt a shitty hand
With all these feelings my heart could explode
So is it not fear, no not at all
And I said, who would've thought that dreams come true
And who would've thought I'd end up with you
And who would've thought what they said was true
But it was and you are light and darkness coming through
Na na na, na na na
Na na na, na na na
Who would've thought that dreams come true
And who would've thought I'd end up with you
And who would've thought what they said was true
But it was and you are light and darkness coming through
