Nok

I love ya 'cause you're such a prick Shut your mouth
My momma said
"Don't saddle me
With selfishness" Do you feel your tongue quivering?
It's moments like these I revel in Your conversation never sticks
'Cause no truth in you exists
Yeah, you bite before you lick
I love ya 'cause you're such a prick One more time
Don't fashion me
With stylish words
Of ramblings Honey, do you feel my pulse lingering?
It's moments like these I revel in Your conversation never sticks
'Cause no truth in you exists
Yeah, you bite before you lick
I love ya when you're such a prick It's moments like these I revel in Your conversation never sticks
'Cause no truth in you exists
Yeah, you bite before you lick
I love ya 'cause you're such a prick Your conversation never sticks
'Cause no truth in you exists
Yeah, you bite before you lick
I love ya 'cause you're such a prick
