Punch Lines and Ironies

Chris Rice

Here we are together
I never would have guessed it
Baby, there's a reason
And baby, there's a message'Cause we've all seen the glories
And we've all heard love stories
Stranger than this, stranger than thisPunch lines and ironies
Swirl through the galaxies
Like dust in the sunbeams
That slant through our windowsAnd heartbeats and molecules
Geniuses and silly fools
We're all at the mercies
Of punch lines and ironiesEchoes and rumors
Of God's sense of humor
Leak out of heaven
In the mysteries and legendsAnd they whisper their glories
Into our love stories
And help us believe
Yeah, they help us believePunch lines and ironies
Swirl through the galaxies
Like dust in the sunbeams
That slant through our windowsAnd heartbeats and molecules
Geniuses and silly fools
We're all at the mercies
Of punch lines and ironies
