

Solicitude, Silence

Lacrimas Profundere

Break the silence But we left the feeling of emptiness
To discover the new doom
Of silence but I could adore the silence more
And everything is nothing
Solicitude I never thought
I thought it was Could escape from
My dreams
And heal my wounds So what we become
So what we become
Is silence, heal me I hope that we broke the silence.
