Karma

Boy Kicks Girl

("Evil" Kevin La Bounty 1998)
I'm so glad that we had our little talk/chat
It's nice to know you will never change your ways
And I'm glad that you left me years ago
Because now I found someone who confides in me
Sad to hear your new man sleeps around with other girls
But now you know just how it feels to realize your love means shit
Made me smile to hear you say, "Other guys don't measure up."
If there was one thing you were good for, that was nothing
What goes around always comes around
I'll watch you fall then hit the ground
I don't know what's happening
It's a world of selfishness and sin
