

Goodnight Kiss

Phil Ayoub

I ain't sleeping too much in my head
I've been thinking something's left unsaid
And in the morning feeling just the same
    Boy it's killing me
I ain't crying don't want to be alone
Just need lifting from my melancholic tone
Make no mistake, a little too late is just too long
Don't ask me why this is goodbye if you do me wrong
    So baby tonight, I might let you in
    No need to fight I'm yours so let's begin
But baby I know, when you go, your touch I'll miss
    But starting tonight if you don't treat me right
    Then it's just gonna end as a goodnight kiss
Boy you're dreaming, you don't know what to do
    Don't be shy, stop, I'm coming through
    And in the meantime if you have a little doubt
Make no mistake, it's never too late what's done can't be undone
    Don't be afraid to what I say the best is yet to come

    So baby tonight, I might let you in
    No need to fight I'm yours so let's begin
But baby I know, when you go, your touch I'll miss
    But starting tonight if you don't treat me right
    Then it's just gonna end as a goodnight kiss
    I'd rather be lonely than be with a phoney
    If I'm not the girl in your head
    I'd rather be wrong if it doesn't feel right
    'Cos boy you're killing me tonight
    So baby tonight, I might let you in
    No need to fight I'm yours so let's begin
But baby I know, when you go, your touch I'll miss
    But starting tonight if you don't treat me right
Then it's just gonna end as a goodnight kiss, a goodnight kiss
    A goodnight kiss, a goodnight kiss, a goodnight kiss
    A goodnight kiss, a goodnight kiss, a goodnight kiss
