Into You

Ingrid Michaelson

Fool,
Im a fool to believe I can do,Without you to repair all the wreckage and ruin.Close every door, fall asleep on the floor.
Nothing more to this room but a girl in a jar. Into you, into you
Can we break down? Let me through.
Take me back, Into you, into you, into you.Fight,
I can fight, I can punch back the night.
If you say I can lay right here by your side
Into you, into you
Can we break down? Let me through.
Take me back,
Into you, into you, into you.Theres nothing left to me now,
Nothing left.
Theres nothing left to me now,
Nothing left.
Everything I ever knew,
Only lives in you.
