Hear Me Out

New Edition

{I'm sorry baby
I didn't mean to do what I did
I mean, it just happened so fast, you know?
I woke up out of the situation
And I was like, Mike, you don't even need to go out like this
And that's why I'm calling you, you know?
Just listen to me}Hear me out girl, hear me out girl
My apologies for breaking your heart
Hear me out girl, hear me out girl
My apologies for breaking your heartOoh, at home all alone thinking to my self
What a fool I was for letting you go
(Letting you go)
If I could rewind the hands of time
I'd take back every word that made you cry
(Don't cry)I know I acted kind of crazy
I know I acted kind of crazy
I need you now to understand me
(Please understand me)Hear me out girl, hear me out girl
My apologies for breaking your heart
Hear me out girl, hear me out girl
My apologies for breaking your heartWell, now is the time for us to realize
How much we mean to each other, girl
(To each other, girl)
Just don't walk away, that's much too easy
I'm begging you to stay
(I'm begging)
(Stay)I know I acted kind of crazy
(I know I acted kind of crazy)
I need you now to understand me
(Please understand me)Hear me out girl, hear me out girl
My apologies for breaking your heart
(My apologies for breaking your heart)
(You know I'll get down on my knees and say)
Hear me out girl, hear me out girl
My apologies for breaking your heartHear me out girl, hear me out girl
My apologies for breaking your heart
(My apologies for breaking your heart)
(You know I'll get down on my knees and say)
Hear me out girl, hear me out girl

My apologies for breaking your heart
