Family

Joe Walsh

I've been alone most of my life
I've never known what it was like
To end up somewhere and not have to pack
To be among friends I know have my back
But now I'm here where I belong
I've finally found a wife and a home
And a family that matters, means more to me
Than anything I have ever believed
And when we are gathered together
Tell me how blessed can somebody be
Give thanks, break bread, say grace, bow heads
For all of this love that surrounds me

We laugh, we cry, stand together that's why
It's all being part of a family
Tried it before, never felt right
I never dreamed that someday I might
Be part of something bigger than me
It makes me feel humble, finally I see
All that we have is each other
And that's all that I'll ever need
Give thanks, take time to say that I'm
So grateful for all that surrounds me
We laugh, we cry, stand together that's why
It's all being part of a family
