Being 1

Volbeat

One word took the other, and suddenly
We're stronger than we ever could imagine
A bond that can cut through the fire of hell
Sharing one mind one heart forever
I've been holding you for a year or two
You're the reason why I'm holding up
And our love's gonna last forever
We'll be dancing the streets again in Memphis
I hate every sec, every minute you're gone
For so long we been talking and sharing the dirt
Been laughing at the fools who couldn't hear us
Getting stronger together and falling in love

And nothing in the world can separate us
I've been holding you for a year or two
You're the reason why I'm holding up
And our love's gonna last forever
We'll be dancing the streets again in Memphis
I hate every sec, every minute you're gone
I've been holding you for a year or two
You're the reason why I'm holding up
And our love's gonna last forever
We'll be dancing the streets again in Memphis
I hate every sec, every minute you're gone
