

If Only

Gin Wigmore

Help me
I'm losing
To the ghosts in my head
I am fighting
Waiting
On answers
I can't win this
On my own
Oh but i bleed
For someone to believe me
And see what i see
If only
If only
My head would let me free
Then would you take
A chance on me
If only
Your story
was who I want to be
If only
You would roll it all on me
Fall
Into me
I am golden if you let me
Hear me
Im dying
Just to stand here

On my own
Oh but i bleed for someone to believe me
And see what i see
If only
If only
My head would let me free
Then would you take
A chance on me
If only
Your story
was who I want to be

If only
You would roll it all on me
You would roll it all on me
You would roll it all on me
You would roll it all on me
You would roll it all

If only
If only
My head would let me free
Then would you take
A chance on me
If only
Your story
As who I want to be
If only
You would roll it all on me
