Instrument for You

The Vespers

Let's go down to the river in the morning
Let's rise up before the sun
Listen to the whispering waters,
Sing an anthem to the Lord above

Let's go walk to the top of the mountain
Watch the sun creep up so slow
Golden light flooding the canyon amplifying autumn glow
How pure their praise appears
So lovely in your ears
Ah that I could too, be an instrument for you, playing

Let's go find the weeping willow
See it cry it's tears for Christ
Lay our heads on the grassy pillow
All creation sings His mind
How pure their praise appears
So lovely in your ears
Ah that I could too, be an instrument for you, playing

How pure their praise appears
So lovely in your ears
Ah that I could too,
How pure their praise appears
So lovely in your ears
Ah that I could too, be an instrument for you Sing a song that's new, let my words be few, playing.

Lyrics submitted by Allison Epling.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/