Year By Year

Backyard Babies

All my dreams are hunting me
Nothing seems to be for real
Can people change this world
Around, can people change my life to comeWell, it's been too many night of fear
It's been too many days not clear
Can you believe the world they say
Can you control the righteous wayI even out my life, I even try to fight my war
And peace goin' 'round and 'round
Year by year, am I the only one?So you think I'm doin' fine
Stealing things that are not mine
Be careful what you do wish for
You end up losing even moreI even out my life, I even try to fight my war
And peace goin' 'round and 'round
Year by year, am I the only one?Well, I fight my war
And peace goin' 'round and 'round
Year by year, am I the only one?Feel bad for you, so sad for you
I'm so done with you, overcome all the overnight sensations
And my patience creates my ghost
Yeah, my patience creates myMany men have traveled far
To try it all over from the start
What you are is what you get
There is nothing that you can reset'Cause I, I even out my life, I even try to fight
You boys just can't resist, resist what girls won't miss
My war and peace goin' 'round and 'round
Year by year, am I the only one?Well, I fight my war
And peace goin' 'round and 'round
Year by year, am I the only one?
