Are You Ready?

Bis

My heart beats fast
As I try to forget what's hiding in my head
Will it ever change or will it end?
Some days I can't pretendWell, everything will be just fine
Take one step at a time
It's like a scar that cannot heal
Think I can touch but I can't feelNo one bothers to ask what's wrong
Maybe they don't care at all
If there are no bruises, then I can't be hurt?
Can I die with open eyes?Everything will be just fine
Take one step at a time
It's like a scar that cannot heal
Think I can touch but I can't feelAre you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and go
Are you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and goWhere have I been, what have I become?
I don't like the person I am
There will come a time when you have to choose
What have you got to lose?Everything will be just fine
Take one step at a time
It's like a scar that cannot heal
Think I can touch but I can't feelAre you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and go
Are you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and goAre you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and go
Are you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and goAre you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and go
Are you ready? Are you ready?
It's come, the time to get up and go
