Silence

Kylie Minogue

lying on the ground together staring at the stars the night can carry us forever we're ready to go far... beyond the realm of us is nothing nothing that matters the world can fall apart but love, love won't be shattered !
you take the words from my mouth
like you take the beat from my heart.... never had this with anyone else
i just don't wanna be apart
i understand you in the silence so there's no need to say a word it feels so right you can't deny it the best is what you haven't heard.... time has lost its meaning when you hold me in your arms and i can hear so clearly in the quiet in the dark skin to skin so close to me there's nowhere else i'd rather be....
like you take the beat from my heart
i understand you in the silence...
so there's no need to say a word
it feels so right you can't deny it
skin to skin to skin so close to me there's nowhere else i'd rather be....
skin to skin to skin !
skin to skin to skin !
i understand you in the silence
so there's no need to say a word
it feels so right you can't deny it
the best is what you haven't heard... i understand you in the silence
so there's no need to say a word
it feels so right you can't deny it
the best is what you haven't heard....
